The Meez is a geometric extremely extended
sans-serif typeface
strictly intended for use as a display font.
The family consists of three styles:
Light, Regular & Bold.
In each weight all letterforms
retain the same width,
which make it ideal
for titling use.

I think
it's rather difficult
to create a new typeface
DESIGN
or that matter
to create a
NEW
anything that's in everyday use.
